Prayer Calendar
November 2026

The saints in all this glorious war shall conquer, though they die;
they see the triumph from afar
by faith's discerning eye.
Isaac Watts - Am I a Soldier of the Cross

24th November	10:00-10:30am	Contemplative Prayer Church (4th Tuesday)

Mon 2nd	ALL SOULS' DAY Lord, we give thanks for those we have loved and who are now with you.
For the rest of this week the subject of our prayers is the KCT1000 Building Project
Tues 3rd	Give thanks for the support we have received so far from grant making bodies and the Heritage Fund.
Wed 4th	For the success of the congregational giving campaign – that people will be moved and respond according to their ability.
Thurs 5th	For Paul, Helen and Shanthi – the mobilisation team – asking for time and skills to manage this key phase of the project
Fri 6th	For Derek and members of the Project Board – for wisdom, and discernment
Sat 7th	For Mike, our architect, and others as they work on the details of the building side of the project.
Sun 8th	REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY Forgiveness is the supreme work of God for the re-creation of all things. Nothing new happens without it. Richard Rohr
Mon 9th	Lord, on this November morning, help me to take hold of the day so that the hours become my gift to you, and to those who need my time. Peter Firth
Tues 10th	Blessed are the peace makers for they will be called the children of God. Matthew 5:9 Sovereign Lord, we lift to you those areas of the world currently ripped apart by armed conflict. We pray for the places, the people, the problems and those in positions of power.
Wed 11th	God did not say, "You will not be tempest-tossed, you will not be discomforted." But he said, "You will not be overcome." Julian of Norwich.

Thurs 12th	Let your good faith and loyalty never fail. Proverbs 3:3 Father, help us all to be encouragers to one another, as we navigate the ups and downs of life. Give us gentle and humble hearts as we care deeply.
Fri 13th	Holiness consists simply in doing God's will and being just what God wants us to be. St Therese
Sat 14th	For Manna House, the Kendal and District Debt Centre, the Connect Café, Springfield and all the other organisations in and around our town that help those in need. We ask for the resources they need to serve the community well to be given to them.
Sun 15th	Actions speak louder than words: let your words teach and your actions speak. St Anthony
Mon 16th	NATIONAL DAY FOR TOLERANCE Be always humble, gentle and patient. Show your love by being tolerant with one another. Ephesians 4:2 Help us, Lord, to be respectful when we find ourselves of a different opinion to those we are with. We especially pray Jesus' prayer for unity for your Church.
Tues 17th	For all the young people who are known to us here at Holy Trinity. May they find direction and purpose, identity and love as they spend time learning about You. For the Toddlers and the important ministry amongst the very young and their families.
Wed 18th	Lord, work good in me and provide me with what you know I need. St Columbanus
Thurs 19th	HILDA ABBESS OF WHITBY (680AD) "Keep the peace of the gospel with one another and indeed with the entire world." Hilda
During the next few days we will be focusing on the theme of Advent at Kendal Parish Church
Fri 20th	The Christmas Tree Festival: all the preparations for it; that those who come will get some Christmas wonder as well as creative décor!

Sat 21st	The Schools' Carol Services being held in KPC, all who attend, lead and support: that words sung and spoken may communicate the great gift of Our Lord's life on Earth.
Sun 22nd	CHRIST THE KING Psalm 9: "He governs the people with equity" Father, we pray for our leaders, local, national and international.
Mon 23rd	Our own services: that we may all be open to new understanding amid familiar words and that we may have the will to reflect on the Second Coming and time for amendment of life. For our musicians.
Tues 24th	The communicating, advertising and inviting to Christmas services this year and clarity for all who speak, so that many people will attend and hear Good News.
Wed 25th	ISAAC WATTS - Hymn writer died 1748 Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were an offering far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, life, my all. For the people we know who may need this reassurance of the amazing love You have for them.
Thurs 26th	For those for whom a bleak midwinter is in prospect or already begun and anything we each or communally might do in alleviation.
Fri 27th	Us as a community of faith and as individuals to offer welcome to more people who come to our services and live out the Gospel's calling: may we be hope-filled, open to the Spirit's prompting and not overly busy!
Sat 28th	Looking ahead to Advent 2027: in thankfulness for the building work to come, pray for creative ways to make the most of the remaining space we will have this time next year and unwavering focus on the love of God made known in Jesus.
Sun 29th	ADVENT SUNDAY We are a people walking in darkness, yet seeking the light. To you we say, "Come Lord Jesus!" Henri Nouwen
